

March 20, 2025

Top Stories

Health expenditure now at 1.84 pc of GDP, moving steadily to 2.5 pc: JP Nadda

"In 2013-14, the government health expenditure, which includes state and the Centre, was 1.15 per cent, and when the..

Corporate Hospitals Can't Join Ayushman Until Scheme Is Viable: NATHEALTH

During a media interaction on the sidelines of an event, the NATHEALTH top board stated, Most corporate hospitals..

FDA classifies recall of Medtronic embolization devices as 'most serious'

The recall impacts the Pipeline Vantage devices compatible only with 0.027" inner diameter microcatheters, Medtronic..

Indian cities most vulnerable to heat waves focus on short-term fixes: Report

Funding cuts for global health programs threaten childhood vaccination efforts, WHO says

Impose safeguard duties on medical devices: AiMeD

Shingles may trigger long-term health risks, including heart attacks and stroke: Dr Randeep Guleria

Bug drugs: bacteria-based cancer therapies are finally overcoming barriers

More on Top Stories →

Hospitals

Sewri TB Hospital eyes centre of excellence status

Resident docs stir hits services at Kozhikode med college hospital

IMA raises delayed Ayushman payments, pvt hospitals' woes

Boost in cancer treatment: PGI working on lab for stem cell, gene therapies

More on Hospitals →

Medical Devices

Irish device maker Aerogen inaugurates headquarter in Delhi,

eyes market expansion

More on Medical Devices →

Policy

Health Minister Nadda meets NZ PM Luxon

More on Policy →

Industry

Bill Gates discusses healthcare, technology with JP Nadda, Chandrababu Naidu

Lifestyle risks weigh heavier on women's hearts: Study

Industry Stakeholders Call for Stringent Laws to Curb Counterfeiting

Heat-linked deaths may rise in Mumbai & other cities: International study

More on Industry →

International

US Senate Democrats demand reversal of CDC mass firings

EPA plans to eliminate scientific research team, could fire more than 1,000 employees

Measles cases in Texas, New Mexico rise to 317 as outbreak spreads

Healthcare crisis deepens in PoGB amid severe staff and resource shortages

Insurance

Specialty medical insurer ProAssurance to be taken private in about $1.3 billion deal

More on Insurance →